Section 2. Quorum

- A. No less than two-thirds of the Council members eligible to vote will constitute a quorum. The number of members eligible to vote if all Council positions are filled is thirty-three (33).
- B. If, during the course of a meeting the number of members present is reduced below a quorum, the meeting may continue but no vote may be taken.
- C. A majority of the quorum is needed to accept any matter put to a vote.

Example of email vote:

- we had 32 members as of the meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 16
- 2/3 of 32 members is 22 members – our quorum
- A majority of 22 members is 12 yes's.
- If we have 12 people supporting the proposal – it is approved.
